Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

Edson L. Bridges II was born in 1932. Edson received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 1954 and a Master of Business Administration in Finance and Investment from the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration in 1956. Edson began his investment career as an analyst with Bridges Investment Counsel, Inc. in 1959. Edson served as President of Bridges Investment Counsel, Inc. since 1970, Co-Chair and Director of Bridges Holding Company since 2017, and Continuity and Research Officer of Bridges Investment Management since 2018.

Edson was granted the designation Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) in 1967. In order to earn a CFA Charter, one must have four years of qualified investment work experience, become a member of CFA Institute, pledge to adhere to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, apply for membership to a local CFA member society, and complete the CFA Program. The CFA Program is organized into three levels, each culminating in a six-hour exam, and takes approximately three years to complete. Additional information about the CFA Program can be found at www.cfainstitute.org.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

There are no disciplinary events to disclose for Edson.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Edson is President and Director of Bridges Investor Services; Chairman Emeritus of Bridges Investment Fund, Inc. (an SEC-registered investment company); Director and Co-Chair of Bridges Holding Company (a holding company with ownership of Bridges Trust Company, Bridges Trust Company of South Dakota and Bridges Investment Management); Director at N.P. Dodge Co Real Estate Broker and Management; Partner of West Omaha Land & Cattle Co; and Director at Airlite Plastics Co.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

In addition to Edson's regular salary from BIM, Edson may provide certain business consultation services through Bridges Investment Counsel, Inc. and receive compensation. Edson also receives compensation for his Director participation with N.P. Dodge Co Real Estate Broker and Management, Airlite Plastics Co., Bridges Holding Company, and Bridges Investment Fund, Inc.

Item 6 - Supervision

The Investment Committee serves as the first line of supervision for the firm's investment professionals. The Committee meets weekly to set and maintain a list of approved and recommended securities for use across the firm. Portfolio Managers are not restricted to owning names that have been approved by the Committee; however, many holdings in a given client's portfolio will generally come from the approved list.

Supervision of individual investment professionals begins with a review of the asset allocation compared to stated client objectives. Performance is reviewed relative to a representative selection of similarly situated client accounts. If a reviewed portfolio has an asset allocation or a performance result that falls outside of the tolerance levels, a full portfolio review will be performed by the Committee.

If the Committee finds that the Portfolio Manager is acting in a manner that is inconsistent with a client's stated objectives, they will be instructed to reposition the portfolio so that it complies with the portfolio's investment policy statement.

Edson L. ("Ted") Bridges III is the head of the Investment Committee and is primarily responsible for the supervision of all supervised individuals. Ted is the CEO of Bridges Investment Management, Inc. and can be reached at 402-397-4700.

Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

Megan M. McMurry (“Megan”) was born in 1982. Megan received her Bachelor of Business Administration and Bachelor of Accounting from Concordia University. Megan also received her Master of Accountancy from the University of New Orleans. Megan has served as a Senior Vice President of Bridges Investment Management, Inc. (“BIM”) and is a member of the Investment Committee since September of 2017. Prior to that, she served as a Financial Advisor/Wealth Planning Analyst at UBS Financial Services in Omaha from August 2014 to August of 2017. Megan served as a manager and staff accountant with Dana F. Cole & Co. LLP from January 2006 to August 2014.

Megan is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accounts (AICPA), the Nebraska Society of Certified Public Accountants, Omaha Estate Planning Council, and Accounting and Financial Women’s Alliance.

Megan is a Certified Financial Planner (CFP®). The CFP Program requires completion of coursework on financial planning through a CFP Board Registered Program, achievement of a bachelor’s degree or higher from an accredited college or university, completion of the CFP exam, completion of 6,000 hours of professional experience related to the financial planning process, and committing to high ethical and conduct standards. Additional information about the CFP® designation can be found at www.cfp.net.

Megan is a Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP®). The CAP program requires a minimum of 3 years’ experience advising individuals or charitable organizations in wealth and estate planning, financial planning, charitable planning, charitable giving, planned giving, nonprofit or foundation management or services, investment management of charitable assets or accounting; completion of three graduate level courses; and successful completion of three exams. Additional information about the CAP® designation can be found at www.theamericancollege.edu/designations-degrees/CAP.

Megan passed the first of three levels of the CFA testing program. The CFA Program is organized into three levels, each culminating in a six-hour exam, and takes approximately three years to complete. Additional information about the CFA designation can be found at www.cfainstitute.org.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

There are no disciplinary events to disclose for Megan.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Megan is a Senior Vice President of Bridges Trust Company (a Nebraska chartered trust company) and is not actively engaged in any other business or occupation deemed substantial.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Megan does not receive additional economic benefit from any third party for the provision of advisory services.

Item 6 - Supervision

The Investment Committee serves as the first line of supervision for the firm’s investment professionals. The Committee meets weekly to set and maintain a list of approved and recommended securities for use across the firm. Portfolio Managers are not restricted to owning names that have been approved by the Committee; however, many holdings in a given client’s portfolio will generally come from the approved list.

Supervision of individual investment professionals begins with a review of the asset allocation compared to stated client objectives. Performance is reviewed relative to a representative selection of similarly situated client accounts. If a reviewed portfolio has an asset allocation or a performance result that falls outside of the tolerance levels, a full portfolio review will be performed by the Committee.

If the Committee finds that the Portfolio Manager is acting in a manner that is inconsistent with a client’s stated objectives, they will be instructed to reposition the portfolio so that it complies with the portfolio’s investment policy statement.
