If you have not received our firm's Brochure or have any questions about the contents of this Brochure Supplement, please contact Steve Woodward at 402-397-4700 or swoodward@bridgestrust.com.

Additional information about Edson L. Bridges III is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

Edson L. Bridges III (“Ted”) was born in 1958. Ted received a Bachelor of Science in Economics from Dartmouth College in 1980 and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Nebraska College of Law in 1983. Ted began his investment industry career in 1983 as an analyst for Bridges Investment Counsel, Inc. and has since held numerous titles as he progressed through the organization. Ted is CEO, Chairman, President and a Director of Bridges Investment Management, Inc.

Ted was granted the designation Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) in 1987. In order to earn a CFA Charter, one must have four years qualified investment work experience, become a member of CFA Institute, pledge to adhere to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, apply for membership to a local CFA member society, and complete the CFA Program. The CFA Program is organized into three levels, each culminating in a six-hour exam, and takes approximately three years to complete. Additional information about the CFA Program can be found at www.cfainstitute.org.

Ted was also granted the Chartered Investment Counselor (CIC) charter. The CIC is a professional designation awarded by the Investment Adviser Association (IAA) and was designed to recognize the special qualifications of persons employed by IAA member firms whose primary duties involve investment counseling and portfolio management. A key educational component of the program is the requirement that candidates hold the Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA®) designation, administered by CFA Institute. In addition to successful completion of the CFA program, the CIC designation requires candidates to demonstrate at least 5 cumulative years’ experience in a position performing investment counseling and portfolio management responsibilities. At the time the charter is awarded, candidates must be employed by an IAA member firm in a such a position, must provide work and character references, must endorse the IAA’s Standards of Practice, and must provide professional ethical information. Additional information about the CIC program and designation is available at <https://www.investmentadviser.org/resources/professional-designations/cic-designation>.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

There are no disciplinary events to disclose for Ted.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Ted is Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Chairman, President, and a Director of Bridges Trust Company (a Nebraska chartered trust company); CEO, Chairman, President, and a Director of Bridges Trust Company of South Dakota (a South Dakota chartered trust company); CEO, Chief Investment Officer, Director, and President of Bridges Investment Fund, Inc. (an SEC-registered investment company); CEO and Director of Bridges Holding Company (a holding company with ownership of Bridges Trust Company, Bridges Trust Company of South Dakota and Bridges Investment Management); and Ted is involved with several charitable and professional organizations including but not limited to serving on the boards of the Gretchen Swanson Center for Nutrition charitable organization as well as College of Saint Mary where Ted chairs their Investment Committee.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Ted does not receive additional economic benefit from any third party for the provision of advisory services.

Item 6 - Supervision

The Investment Committee serves as the first line of supervision for the firm’s investment professionals. The Committee meets at least monthly to set and maintain a list of approved and recommended securities for use across the firm. Portfolio Managers are not restricted to owning names that have been approved by the Committee; however, many holdings in a given client’s portfolio will generally come from the approved list.

Supervision of individual investment professionals begins with a review of asset allocations compared to stated client objectives. Performance is reviewed relative to a representative selection of similarly situated client accounts. If a reviewed portfolio has an asset allocation or a performance result that falls outside of the tolerance levels, a full portfolio review will be performed by the Committee.

If the Committee finds that the Portfolio Manager is acting in a manner that is inconsistent with a client’s stated objectives, they will be instructed to reposition the portfolio so that it complies with the portfolio’s investment policy statement.

Edson L. Bridges III (“Ted”) is the head of the Investment Committee and is primarily responsible for the supervision of all supervised individuals. Ted is the CEO of Bridges Investment Management, Inc. and can be reached at 402-397-4700.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Nancy serves as Secretary, Treasurer and Chief Compliance Officer of Bridges Investment Fund, Inc., a related SEC-registered investment company, a Vice President of Bridges Trust Company (a Nebraska chartered trust company) and Bridges Trust Company of South Dakota. Nancy is not actively engaged in any other business or occupation deemed substantial.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Nancy does not receive additional economic benefit from any third party for the provision of advisory services.

Item 6 - Supervision

The Investment Committee serves as the first line of supervision for the firm's investment professionals. The Committee meets at least monthly to set and maintain a list of approved and recommended securities for use across the firm. Portfolio Managers are not restricted to owning names that have been approved by the Committee; however, many holdings in a given client's portfolio will generally come from the approved list.

Supervision of individual investment professionals begins with a review of the asset allocation compared to stated client objectives. Performance is reviewed relative to a representative selection of similarly situated client accounts. If a reviewed portfolio has an asset allocation or a performance result that falls outside of the tolerance levels, a full portfolio review will be performed by the Committee.

If the Committee finds that the Portfolio Manager is acting in a manner that is inconsistent with a client's stated objectives, they will be instructed to reposition the portfolio so that it complies with the portfolio's investment policy statement.

Edson L. Bridges III ("Ted") is the head of the Investment Committee and is primarily responsible for the supervision of all supervised individuals. Ted is the CEO of Bridges Investment Management, Inc. and can be reached at 402-397-4700.
